

William Main Distinguished Visitors Program
Fall, 2009

“Environmental Regulation and Natural Resources”

2326 Tolman Hall
3:30 – 5:00 pm

September 3 "Who's In Charge Here: Air Quality Regulation In California"

David Pettit, Senior Attorney, Natural Resources Defense Council, Santa Monica,

September 24 "California Forest Policy ... a Nexus of Science and Politics"

David Bischel, President, California Forestry Association, Sacramento

October 8 CA "Whisky's for Drinkin', Water's for Fightin': Managing Water in California for the 21st Century"

Mark Rentz, Director of Regulatory Affairs, Association of California Water Agencies, Sacramento

October 15 "Regulation of Subterranean Energy Resources in California"

Elena Miller, State Oil and Gas Supervisor, California Department of Conservation, Sacramento

October 29 "Resource Development and Environmental Protection"

Ben Licari, Director of Geology & Exploration, Granite Rock Company, Watsonville

November 5 "Forest Management and The Future Of Salmon In California"

Mark Stopher, Environmental Program Manager, California Department of Fish and Game, Redding

November 12 "CalFed: MultiAgency Collaboration in the Delta"

Joe Grinstaff, Deputy Secretary for Water Policy & Director of the California Bay-Delta Authority, Sacramento

The William Main Distinguished Visitor Program is presented by the Center for Forestry of the College of Natural Resources, University of California, Berkeley.